Travelling Book Fayre

The travelling books arrived this week, thank you to those parents who have come along with their children and purchased books. This will be available until Tuesday 21st November, so if you have not already come to have a browse please do so at the end of the day in the school hall between 3:15pm and 3:45pm.

A big thank you to those pupils who submitted their "Design Your Own Book Cover Competition" entries. It was difficult to choose a winner with some of the entries, so well done to all the children. The winners from each class received their £5 voucher to spend at the Travelling Book Fayre, as well as the one overall winner, Bailey. We have included the winners entries in this week's newsletter.

PTA Christmas Fayre – Non-Uniform Days

It will not be long and we will be at the Christmas Fayre, as always we appreciate any donations from the community to help us raise funds for the PTA, which in turn is used to enhance children's learning. The dates are listed below where children can come into school in their own clothes in return for bottles, chocolate and cake.

24th November – Bottles
1st December – Chocolate
8th December - Cake

Road Safety

Challenger class had their KCC road safety discussion this week. They watched videos on how to be safe when using the roads and also showed what they had learnt - I am sure they told you all about this when they got home!
