Children In Need

Thank you for all of the donations brought in to school today for Children In Need. It was also great to see so many children wearing their odd socks to raise awareness for anti-bullying week.

Parent/Teacher Meetings

Thank you to all those of you who completed the online form indicating what part of the day on Thursday 1st December would suit you best for a meeting with your child's class teacher. Next week, you will receive a note detailing the EXACT time of this 10-minute appointment slot. For those pupils whose parents we have not heard from, I will be setting an appointment time for you and this will be detailed in the note.

School Payment System

You should have received a letter outlining the new school payment system that we will be using going forwards. If you need more information about this please contact the school office.

Travelling Books

Since Wednesday, we have had the Travelling Books Fair open in school at the end of the school day. This will be here until Tuesday 22nd should you wish to come in and buy some books. There is a competition coming home today where children can win a £5 book voucher for this so please look out for it.

Road Safety

We had road safety workshops earlier this week for children in Years 3 to 5. There were some excellent discussions taking place and I hope that those discussions continued at home.

Open Evening

School is open once again next Thursday (24th November) between 3:15pm and 6pm for parents to come and look through their children's work. This time, we will be leaving out post-it notes and pencils on tables for parents to write complimentary comments in the books about some of the work that they see. This will be nice for the children to read as well as some of the teachers I am sure.

Year 5 Meeting

One of the comments made on the recent Parent Survey was around more information for parents with children in Year 5 about the forthcoming test. With this in mind, there is now a meeting on Thursday at 5pm in Columbia class where I will be explaining more on this process to parents and will be happy to answer any questions.

Yearly Overviews

On Monday, we will be sending home Yearly Overviews to parents which outline what is being taught to your child in EVERY area of the curriculum over the course of this academic year. It is hoped that this will then enable you to further support your child at home.

Monday Football

We will be offering the opportunity for those pupils who have a passion for football to be able to watch the first England game of this year's World Cup on Monday in classes.
