Lantern Walk

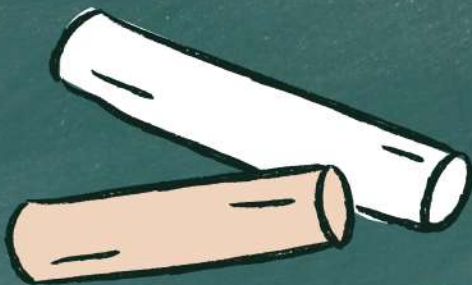

Despite the current cold conditions, there was a great turnout at last night's PTA Lantern Walk.

Thank you to Ms Silverton for once again single-handedly organising another whole school event for families.

I would also like to thank the staff for staying back after a busy day including Open Evening.

The feedback from families attending the event was incredibly positive, which is always great to hear.

I am sure this will continue to be an annual event moving forwards.

Battle of the Bands

This afternoon, the whole school were treated to a music extravaganza as the year 6 pupils performed in Battle of the Bands.

This event showcased all of the fantastic learning that has been taking place so far this year for Blyton class in their sessions with Mr Miles.

Thank you to all those parents who were able to come along and support the children.

Pantomime

We are delighted to be taking lots of children to Beauty and the Beast at the Marlowe Theatre on Monday 9th December.

This is an optional event and those who do not wish to attend will remain in school and complete Christmas activities.

I have written to parents who have NOT yet confirmed their attendance for this event.

Parents Evening

Parent/Teacher meetings take place next week at the following times:

ROSEN Class - Tuesday 10.30am to 6pm

DUFFY Class - Wednesday 10.30am to 6pm

DONALDSON Class - Wednesday 1pm to 6pm

MORPURGO Class - Wednesday 1pm to 6pm

BLYTON Class - Wednesday 1pm to 6pm.

We have had a really positive response from parents to this first round of meetings for this academic year, thank you for ensuring that these have been arranged. We look forward to sharing great progress news about your child.

Samba Workshop

Next Friday (29th November), Mr Miles is putting on a special Samba Workshop for parents with children in Rosen class to come and take part alongside their children. Note, this is NOT a dancing session (in case that is putting anyone off!!) - it is indeed a drumming session and is lots of fun.

We look forward to hopefully seeing many parents next week.

Travelling Books

Thank you to Mr Bekker for arranging for the Travelling Books to be available to families over the last couple of weeks.

The take up of books has been fantastic and it was great to see so many children excited to be going home with some new books to read.

Talent Show

We will once again be having a Christmas Talent Show in the final week of term.

In preparation for this, Mr Hutcheon will be holding auditions on Friday 7th December at lunchtime.

All children are invited to audition should they wish and school councillors have already handed out forms for this. Good luck to all that try out!

Football

The football season is now in full flow and the team played again last night with a match against Preston Primary. We managed to score a goal (Ronne Clubb) but unfortunately lost the game 2-1. This week, there is another game on Tuesday and then on Thursday afternoon, our Girls Football team will be taking part in an event.
