

Your Wild Activity Passport

#30DaysWild

This is your passport to a really wild month!

Use it as you wish – either for inspiration, a strict guideline – or anywhere in between. Most of these activities are super simple, while some may take a bit of forward planning. Some are designed to help the planet; some will help clear your mind; others will help wildlife where you live – but they're all guaranteed to be fun! Make sure you share everything you get up to online using #30DaysWild.

Take action for insects by planting some wildflower seeds

Sketch something from nature

Take your exercise outdoors

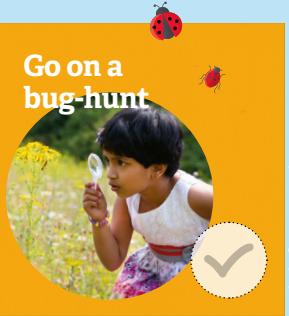

Bake a nature-themed cake

Attempt a plastic-free day

Go on a bug-hunt

© Jon Hawkins/Surrey Hills Photography

Go on a mini litter-pick

Take a meal outside today

Make a home for wildlife

Listen out for
birdsong,
learn who it's coming from

Follow a bee
on its journey

Create your own Random Act of Wildness today

Sit for a while and record
what you see

Stay up late and
look at the stars

Read a wild book, blog
or poem

Identify a wildflower

Capture a great photograph of something wild

Watch a wild
webcam ([wildlifetrusts.org/
webcams](http://wildlifetrusts.org/webcams))

Think about reducing your carbon footprint
today

Get up early and watch
the sunrise

Join the 30 Days Wild Facebook group for daily inspiration @30DaysWild

Lie on the floor and look for shapes in the clouds

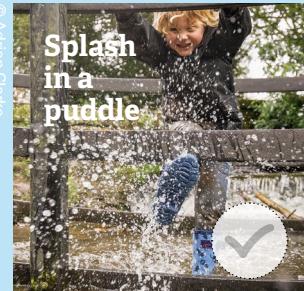

© Mark Hamblin/2020VISION

Get crafty with resources from nature

Write to your MP about why nature's recovery is important to you

(wildlifetrusts.org/write-your-mp)

Look for the unexpected in nature and share with friends

Go barefoot – connect to the earth

Admire a tree

Donate to an appeal or sign a petition

Reflect on how nature has made you feel the past month

HURRAY – you've made it! Congratulations!

Celebrate by downloading your 30 Days Wild completion certificate from wildlifetrusts.org/30dayswild (available from 30 June).

© Adrian Clarke

© 4Max/Shutterstock

Stay wild with your Wildlife Trust

#30DaysWild

The Wildlife Trusts is a grassroots movement, made up of 46 individual Wildlife Trusts operating in every corner of the UK, Alderney and the Isle of Man. We care for 2,300 incredible wild places, from remote woods and wild rivers to inner city pockets of nature. We also look after the amazing wildlife that lives on our coasts and in our seas. By taking part in 30 Days Wild you're helping us achieve our mission of bringing people closer to nature, and land and seas rich in wildlife. If you want to find out how you can do more to help visit wildlifetrusts.org/get-involved.

T 01636 677711

E 30dayswild@wildlifetrusts.org

wildlifetrusts.org

Follow us...

 @WildlifeTrusts

 @wildlifetrusts

 @thewildlifetrusts

Follow the Wildlife Trust in your area too for more information about wildlife where you live!

